Section 2 – Answer any 4 of the following questions. Answers should be brief and to the point. (4 x 5 = 20 points)

1. What is the Mosaic covenant? What did it describe? What was promised in Jeremiah 31:31-34 and who was it fulfilled through? L4P16

The Mosaic covenant (Ten commandments) provide guidelines on how the Jews were to worship God and treat others. They explicit on what was not to be done, as eight of the commandments began with, “you shall not.” This describes the type of relationship that the people had with the God that delivered them from Egypt.

Jeremiah 31: 31-34 the new covenant that the Lord said He would provide and create an everlasting covenant with the house of Israel and the house Judah which was fulfilled through Christ. Christ died to reestablish the relationship between God and man that was lost in the Garden of Eden.

2. Who was Gamaliel? What reasoning did he provide to change the mind of the council? L25P105

Gamaliel was a Pharisee, elder with that reputation of being a great teacher. He was also Apostle Paul’s teacher. Gamaliel asked the council to carefully consider the fate of the apostles and gave them two examples: Theudas and Judas the Galilean. He reasoned that if their movement as of a human source, the apostles would end up like Theudas and Judas the Galilean. But if it was from God, the Sanhedrin would not be able to stop them and possibly by working against God if they were harmed.

3. Identify 5 leaders of the church of Antioch. Include names and backgrounds. L27 P112

- Barnabas, a Jew from Cyprus
- Lucius, from Cyrene in North Africa
- Simeon, called Niger, possibly Simon from Cyrene who carried Jesus’ cross
- Manaen, a man with aristocratic connections
- Paul, a Jew from Tarsus

4. In the story of Jesus and the Rich Man, there are many descriptions for the rich man.

How many versions of this story exists? (1 pt)

How did the gospel of Luke describe this man? (1 pt)

What prevents us from inheriting eternal life? (3 pts) L20 P85-86

- Three versions of this story exists (in the gospel Mathew, Mark and Luke)
- The gospel of Luke identifies this man as a rich young man and “certain ruler”
- There are 3 obstacles preventing us from inheriting eternal life:
 - Disobedience to God and his commandments. We are saved by his grace, through faith in Christ, but once saved; we must live out that faith by obeying the commandments to maintain our salvation.
 - Temptation of idolizing material wealth and all other values. God must be our chief object of our devotion
 - Not giving God the honor (pre-eminence) that is reserved for Him alone.

5. Write any 5 visible signs or results of a man who has attained true salvation? (1 point for any 5)

L19 P 80

- Faith
- Goodness
- Knowledge
- Self- Control

The Metropolitan in the Mar Thoma Church is the head of the church and represents the church in ecclesial matters. (2 pts)

SECTION 6*Essay—choose one of the following two topics to write an essay not exceeding 100* words. (1x10 pts=10 pts).

1. Explain the spiritual transformation that took place in Saul’s life. Your essay should include:

a. Describe the stoning of Stephen and the rise of Saul (5 pts)

b. Explain God’s plan for Saul (5 pts)

c. Explain the difference between being religious versus knowing God (5 pts)

a. Saul was a zealous Pharisee. He was a strong follower of Judaism and believed initially that the gospel of Jesus was a major deception. Therefore, he went around persecuting the Christians and throwing men and women into prison. Stephen was a follower of Christ. He gave his testimony but Stephen was stoned for his faith. Saul was there giving approval to his death. When Stephen was stoned, a great persecution has begun between all the believers except the Apostles throughout Judea and Samaria. Saul was determined to persecute all Christians. Saul was proud of his Jewish heritage. He was blind to any other faith other than Judaism. Saul obtained permission from the high priest to visit Damascus to find Christians to be taken as prisoners. Raised among Greek culture. Well educated. A powerful Roman citizen.

b. However, God had a plan to use Saul to serve the kingdom of God. Saul was on his way to Damascus when he saw a bright light and he was blinded. A voice spoke out and said “Saul, Saul why are you persecuting me.” Saul realized at that the moment he was persecuting the very same God that he was zealously concerned about. Saul spent three days in prayer. It was a very important moment in Saul’s life. It shows how much God is willing to use people for his glory even if they are the same people that are bringing so much pain to his people. God knew that Saul was misdirected and was truly searching and trying to protect what Saul was the truth. God knew this zeal would be tremendously beneficial for the growth of the kingdom of God.

c. The difference between being religious and knowing God is that being religious means that someone is more concerned about following the rules prescribed by that religion. Being religious doesn’t require any effort to know about God. Knowing God means that one is focused on learning about what God wants for their life and doing what it takes to continue to know God more. God took Saul from being just religious to someone who made it the sole purpose in life to know Jesus Christ more and more each day.

 - a. Who was Samuel and what was his relationship with God?
 - b. Can you briefly explain God's desire to lead the Israelites and the desire of the Israelite's people?
 - c. Compare God's reaction of the request to that of the Prodigal Son's Father
 - d. Discuss the natural rebellion of man and God's answer to redeem us.
 - e. How God has interceded for us?

L2 P 7-9

- a.
 - Samuel was dedicated to God from birth by his parents.
 - He grew up in the house of the Lord under the leadership of the High Priest, Eli.
 - God called Samuel when he was a child and began to speak to him.
 - Samuel stayed close to the voice of the Lord and allowed the Lord to make him a blessing to Israel.
 - He spoke as a prophet to turn the hearts of the people to the Lord.
- b.
 - The Lord led Israel and protected Israel against their enemies.
 - God wanted them to be separate and unique from everyone else, but they wanted to conform to the world around them.
 - The Lord wanted to continually guide Israel and be their Saviour and Redeemer.
 - Sadly, the people of Israel decided that they preferred to have a king reign over them like the nations around them.
- c.
 - The request of Israel to Samuel was similar to the request of the Prodigal Son to his father.
 - The request grieved God just as it grieved the father.
 - Israel rejected God as the son rejected the father.
 - Neither the father nor God forced their will. They had free will.
 - God gives into their request for a king.
- d.
 - Just as the Israelites, we continually choose to turn away from God.
 - This is the nature of man.
 - This is why we need to the Holy Spirit to change our lives.
 - Romans 5:8 show how God demonstrates His love for us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
- e.
 - If we recognize God's love for us like Samuel, we will truly find our hearts overflowing with love for Him.
 - The beauty of Christianity is that God loves us and rather than demanding that we do more, he declares that everything has been done already.

- His Son's death on the cross has redeemed us.

2. In the lesson 26 (Acts 27), Paul and the shipwreck, as Paul was being taken as a prisoner on the ship.

- a. Why was Paul being taken as a prisoner and what was the intend of the voyage? (2 pts)
- b. Who all (name a few) who were on board? (1 pts)
- c. Describe the events that happened on board? (5 pts)
- d. Conclusion. (2)

Paul was held a prisoner in Caesarea for 2 years. Paul, as a Roman citizen, requested Governor Festus his case be heard by Caesar in Rome, rather than Jerusalem.

Paul, Centurion Julius, Aristarchus, prisoners, and solders.

Within hours of leaving Fair Havens, a violent storm with close to hurricane force winds takes control of the boat, leaving the captain and crew powerless to control its direction. During the storm, they lost most of their cargo, the lifeboat, the ship's tackle, and their food. The storm would last approximately two weeks, But, God again spoke to Paul, reassuring him that he would, indeed, make it to Rome, and that every single person on the ship would be saved from the storm. Eventually, their boat ran aground on a sandbar off the coast of the island of Malta, and was battered to pieces by the pounding waves. They jumped overboard to swim for the shore, and they all made it!

Paul's focus was spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ and his words and actions reflected that. With faith in Christ, we realize that this world is temporary. Our focus needs to be on Jesus Christ. We may face minor difficulties but we must realize that we need to put our trust in the one true God. We need to let him steer our ship, rather than us trying to.
